YNN Quarterly

Beverly Schrab is proud to present...

It is with much gratitude, passion and excitement that I present the opening of Your Newsy Notes, LLC.

We've been working fast and furious to prepare for take-off.

We've recently become proud members of the Loudoun County Chamber of Commerce; have participated in several business seminars through the Loudoun County Small Business Development Center; and, launched our fabulous website, compliments of Dr. Kevin J. Schrab.

3...2...1...Lift-Off!!!

President/Founder

Our services are waiting for you!

Your Newsy Notes, LLC, is a specialized newsletter service and your advocate. Our role is to connect you to the larger community through our superior and personalized newsletter service. Our mission is two-fold:

1. Business Newsletters — To be your small business advocate. We partner with you to connect your business to the larger business community.
 - Heightening communication (business-to-business and/or business-to-customer) of your company's goals, achievements, services, and products
 - Promote and reinforce business relationships
 - Drive new business development and retention

2. Personal Newsletters — To be your storyteller. We champion for individuals who want to capture news and memories of special occasions (family reunions, birthdays, anniversaries, vacations, or whatever event is special to you). Why just send photos, when you can illuminate your story in the form of a newsletter.

We are committed to exemplary service and value for our customers by guaranteeing the quality of our product.

Please feel free to post your comments on my blog and get the discussion going!

According to Lorelle on Wordpress:
“A blog is a website or part of a website...At one time, a blog would have been called a diary, journal... has a bunch of links, talk and comments.

Truth is, a blog is a website, but the terminology is changing to differentiate between a non- or semi-interactive website...”
