Beverly Schrab Joins Loudoun Literacy Council Board of Directors

Ashburn, Virginia (December 12, 2008) – Beverly Schrab of Your Newsy Notes, LLC is elected to the Board of Directors for the Loudoun Literacy Council, Inc. The Loudoun Literacy Council's mission is to change lives by promoting strong literacy skills and fostering life-long learning. Based on our belief that the ability to read, write, speak, and understand English is critical to personal freedom and the maintenance of a democratic American society, we use literacy to help individuals, families and businesses achieve their educational, employment and civic goals.

Beverly's connection with the business community is a value-added to the Literacy Council. Her strength will be in board development: to identify and recruit new Board members.

Your Newsy Notes, LLC is Small, Women and Minority (SWaM) certified, and an award winning desktop publishing company that specializes in the format and design of newsletters (print and email), brochures, event programs, and online survey/polls.
